

Constructionline

A UK GOVERNMENT CERTIFICATION SERVICE

Certificate of membership

C & A Excavations Ireland Ltd

Registration No. 75287

Expiry Date May 2015

Constructionline is a UK Government certification service that provides a qualification requirement for all construction workers and provides a framework for approval work categories with a range of categories and sub-categories. The categories are designed to ensure that all workers are qualified to work safely and effectively in their respective categories.

Gareth Kings
Managing Director

Constructionline is a UK Government certification service that provides a qualification requirement for all construction workers and provides a framework for approval work categories with a range of categories and sub-categories. The categories are designed to ensure that all workers are qualified to work safely and effectively in their respective categories.

Constructionline
DIS